

Figure 2. 100 stratified gridded plots will be established and monitored to determine impact and effectiveness of various management practices on forest health and fire resiliency.